

Listening From the Heart

Workshop

with Personal Coaching follow-up available

...a foundation for meaningful communications

"When we listen with our hearts, we respect the diversity of others. When we listen with our hearts, we seek to understand and be empathetic to the need by all to be acknowledged. When we listen with our hearts, we do not judge the logic behind someone's emotions. When we listen from our hearts, we open the door for meaningful communications."

Mike Starr quote
